

As well as sharing information via our website and email discussions, the ENACA usually meets two times per year. The principle of two meetings per year was agreed during the last year meetings due to cost savings. The decision says that one meeting will be held in Central European country, one in country where the intensive communication with ministerial authorities is necessary and the third meeting will be replaced in case of necessity by teleconference.

Plan of meetings for 2015:

12th – 13th March – London, United Kingdom

September – Stuttgart, Germany

2014:

March – Budapest, Hungary

September – Copenhagen, Denmark

2013:

March – Helsinki, Finland

September – Bratislava, Slovakia

2012:

January – Dublin, Ireland

May – Rome, Italy

September – Lisbon, Portugal

2011:

May – Malta